BREININ GIVES "THE CITY" TO S. I. N. U.

Mr. Burnett H. Shroyck, head of the Department of Fine and Applied Arts, announced this week that the oil painting THE CITY, now exhibited in Mr. Raymond Breinin's one-man show, has been given to the college.

The City, done in oil, is one of a series of paintings around the theme of the city. A gouache sketch of the city was purchased by the Boston museum.

Mr. Breinin stated that he had originally planned to do a local scene. However, Mr. Shroyck expressed a fondness for THE CITY and felt that it was the same of the city series and one of the best. Mr. Breinin during his residence on the campus.

NURSING CONFERENCE

HUGE SUCCESS

The Southern Illinois Conference on Orthopedic Nursing met in the Little Theatre of Southern Illinois Normal University last Friday, September 28.

Robt. J. Linn, director of Division of Services for Crippled Children, at the University of Illinois, who was to have presided at the afternoon session, was unable to be in attendance but two members of the Division carried on in his absence.

They were Miss and Hedwig B. Truss, supervisor of Orthopedic Nursing, and Miss Grace P. Bonner, Orthopedic nurse of the Southern District. Miss Bonner formerly had her office on this campus, but she is now located at St. Louis.

Miss Truss began the session with a discussion of "The Inspection of the Newborn for Orthopedic Defects." She presented slides and films to illustrate her topic.

At 11:00, Dr. Frank McDowell, well-known plastic surgeon from St. Louis, discussed the care and treatment of children with harelip and cleft palate deformities.

Approximately one hundred people were at the luncheon which was held at the Roberts Hotel.

Miss P. Jane Graves, president of the Southern Illinois Association of Nurses, addressed the luncheon meeting of delegates on the subject, "The Need for Nurses During the War Emergency."

At the afternoon session, President Roscoe Pullman of S.I.U. was chairman of a panel discussion on the topic, "Some Usable Resources in Southern Illinois for the Care, Treatment, Education, and Rehabilitation of the Crippled Child."

Many authorities in the fields of orthopedic surgery and psychology were in attendance.

COACH MARTIN PROMOTED

Mr. Glenn "Abe" Martin, instructor of Men's P. E. and varsity basketball coach, has recently been promoted to the rank of First Lieutenant in the Illinois Reserve Militia.

Mr. Martin has been a member of the S.I.U. faculty since 1933. In his years on this campus, he has produced several outstanding Southern teams in basketball and football.

Coach Martin, along with Mr. L. P. "Doc" Lingle, who is also a lieutenant in the militia and head of the Men's P. E. Dept., along with the other officers of the militia, left Wednesday to attend a week of instruction at the school for the officers of the Illinois Reserve Militia. This school is to be held at Camp Stokie, Illinois, near Glenview.

Mr. Robert Wallace, of Marion, Mo., who was to have presided at the afternoon session, was unable to be in attendance but two members of the Division carried on in his absence.

They were Miss and Hedwig B. Truss, supervisor of Orthopedic Nursing, and Miss Grace P. Bonner, Orthopedic nurse of the Southern District. Miss Bonner formerly had her office on this campus, but she is now located at St. Louis.

S. C. F. NEWS

Because of many conflicting campus activities, it was voted at last Monday's meeting to change the time of the Student Christian Council meetings. Effective Thursday, October 7 the meetings will be held for one hour beginning at 5:45 p. m.

Eyes and ears are turned toward the S. C. F. eagerly awaiting the Fellowship night of October 21. On that night, the officers for the coming year just beginning will be nominated. Since the Foundation is working for each of you, you should have some voice in the choosing of the officers. Come over to the Foundation and get acquainted.

You are urged to remember "Eve-Song," each evening from 8:00 to 8:20. You can never realize until you have attended one of these services. They are held in the chapel at one's life at the close of a busy school day.

We've missed a great many of you on Open House meetings each Thursday from 7:30 to 10:30. Drop by the Student Christian Foundation next week; you need not stay the full time. If other duties are pressing upon you, however, you will have a good time, and the Open House is an excellent way to become acquainted with many of the other students.

The Foundation, as you know, acts as a coordinator between your church and you. Many of you have not been present at the worship services at the church of your preference, which you indicated on the cards you placed in the collection box. You are urged to affiliate yourselves with a church, for without the church life your campus life is not as complete as it should be.

Are you interested in billiards? In Ping-pong? In many similar games? The basement of the Foundation will make an excellent recreation room with a small amount of expensive labor from some of our painters and bricklayers. Drop by when you have a few minutes. You will find that your time has been well spent, and your labor will be greatly appreciated.

What is the World Student Service Fund? You don't know? Ask a member of the S. C. F.—inquire at the Student Christian Foundation at 215 Harvard Avenue and you can find out. Remember that you are always welcome at the Student Christian Foundation.

"Keep your eyes on the S. C. F."

27 YEARS AGO

(Editor's Note: The following are excerpts from copies of the EGYPTIAN in 1916. Proof enough that "things aren't what they used to be.")

Married Men's Union—
Song—When I Was Single, etc. Club Color—Black and Blue. Club Flower—Vernon Blossom. Club Yell—We Want Freedom. Club meets morning, noon and night.

One of the laziest social events of the term was enjoyed by the biology classes in the gymnasium Saturday evening, December 8, the occasion being the annual "possum banquet." (And they really ate possum.)

It was bitter cold, and Glenn was hurrying to the hall. He was late, and just like the Illinois Central, whistled loudly as he passed the building. He glanced at his watch, but his watch was wrong. It was always wrong, for there was a pretty girl in the case and the hands just wouldn't behave.

"My inheritance, how wide and Time's my estate; to time I'm heir."

Hears Ho—To a life in the Chem Lab:
Said word, "I might have been." You take a drink of H<sub>2</sub>O, and discover you're KCl.

Don't worry. Though we be doomed, Or frank in the course as given, We'll carry our beakers right on through, And finish the course in heaven.

(Some humorous advertisements appearing in the paper)
Noel's S.I.N.U. Jitney.
Special service for Normal (?) people.

Cars closed, comfortable and convenient. Courteous service and careful driving. (Times certainly have changed.) Call me any minute of the year—I am always awake.

We have a full line of tailored made suits and pajamas slacks at the O. K. Barber Shop.

R. M. Prince Who Knows How We operate the ONLY cleaning works in Carbondale.

We are constantly displaying the newest styles in footwear for women at prices that are as attractive as the shoes. R. A. Taylor Shoe Co. (The Road show days).

The following is a column entitled, "Things We Never Learn," and a column, though twenty-seven years old, still touches the students of 1943.

The new certificating law, how to behave in chapel. Not to talk in the library. Not to loaf in the corridors. When to belch in class.

What could be sadder than a man without a country?
Reinice: A country without a man.

Miss Bowyer: You are too literal. You don't read between the lines, student. I can't. It's half erased.

THE EGYPTIAN—THEN AND NOW

(Editor's Note: The following is a part of the radio speech given last week by your Editor. It is being printed today for the benefit of those who did not hear all of it because of a "cut-off" by the operators, and also because it has some facts about the EGYPTIAN which might be of interest to the S.I.N.U. students.)

The EGYPTIAN, the weekly publication of the College, which began its career 27 years ago in 1916, in 1918 it first discontinued until 1922 on account of the first World War. Its first Editor was Mr. Claude Vick, now Director of Welfare of the Illinois Education Association in Springfield.

The EGYPTIAN was then a monthly paper under strict faculty sponsorship. The faculty's job was to provide a proof read every column to be sure that no obscene or disrespectful joke crept into the paper about the faculty. This was not so good because jokes were a very necessary part of the paper. If the editor said that he would need more copy, he merely added more jokes. Three of these were Mr. Lester, Mr. Mac Trovillion, Mr. Wells, P. B. F. Smith, and Miss Emma Bowyer. All three of whom are still on the faculty today.

In case the date of publication felt on April Fool's Day, the EGYPTIAN was published in bright colors, often green, yellow or pink with whole columns printed upside down.

Perhaps the cleverest side edition of the EGYPTIAN was the miniature edition called the Falfyface. These small sheets made their appearance on the night of the Homecoming play and were distributed between acts of the play. The cost of this publication was $6 which was paid for by the students. These papers were filled with jokes and cartoons about the alumni who were sure to be in the audience. One column was the "Look Around and See if You Can Find the Following." This column often included such men as Keesee, Wells, Lester, and the boys and girls. Clyde Winkler, Byford Westbrook, Oard Stier, and many other prominent alumni.

McCLAM LEAVES SOUTHERN

Sometimes it pays to listen to some of the college gossips. "Look around and see if you can find the following." This column often included such men as Keesee, Wells, Lester, and the boys and girls. Clyde Winkler, Byford Westbrook, Oard Stier, and many other prominent alumni.

I went immediately to the phone and called headquarters to see if what I had heard was true, and Captain McClam was there, which made things much better. Here is the story just as I got it from Captain McClam:

"Before entering the armed forces, I attended and graduated from Clemson College in South Carolina. My first major study was agriculture. However, like all other college men, I too, loved my chemistry, physics, math, etc. I have won many trophies and special awards in golf, tennis, track, and swimming. Immediately after graduation in 1941, I entered the Air Corps.

I was sent to training at different camps and by working hard, I finally reached my present rank of captain.

I have been on this campus for six months and can truthfully say that none of the other papers surpass Southern. Here the members of the faculty, students, as well as cadets, were as nice as people that I have met elsewhere, or for that matter, ever expect to meet. I could never wish to be around nicer people or in a nicer place.

From here I am going to Coffeyville, Kansas, where I will remain a short time only before being transferred to active combat duty. That time cannot come too soon for me! That is exactly what I have been looking forward to ever since I entered the army corp. Just where I will be sent I do not know, but wherever it is, you can bet your life I'll be singing the army air corp song, and instead of marching to keep time, I'll be shouting down a Jap or a German instead.

Well, that's all I can think of, so I must be all there to tell! This is the story—straight from the pen of Captain McClam to me, and from me to you.

Good luck to you, McClam, and don't forget to pay a visit after the war.

Ed Gardner, the Archie of "Duf's Tavern" will be the first guest and Roland Young will cast in regular supporting roles when Dinah Shore, singing star of radio and screen, launches her own variety show at the KNOX-CHS on Thursday (September 30) at 8:30 p. m. The show will be known as "The Dinah Shore Program."

Also appearing on the program will be a new chorus group, the Joseph Lilley Singers, composed of nine college girls. They accompany the star in her solo numbers and offer close harmony specialties of their own. Lilley is chorus director for many network programs.

The Kate Smith program returns to the Columbia network on Friday (October 1) and once again will feature the full professional concert of KNOX-CHS each Friday at 7 p. m.

Kate, who is now in her thirtieth year as a radio star, will continue to entertain the men in service through personal appearances at camps.

The "World's largest classroom" returns to the KNOX-CHS on Monday (October 12) and continues through April 24, 1944 presenting 130 programs devoted to science, world geography, music appreciation, literature and current events, on KNOX-CHS Mondays through Fridays at 2:30 p. m.

The five programs are as follows: Mondays—"The Tools of Science, Thursday—Gateways to Music, Wednesday—New Horizons, World Geography, Thursday—Tales from Far and Near, Fridays—This Living World.

Did you know?

BETHLEHEM, PA. — (AP) — Stuart Hamill, New York author, visited the Lehigh University campus recently to gather material for a biography of Richard Hamilton Davis, Lehigh 38, famous war correspondent.

Mr. Hamill is anxious to debunk the idea that Davis was a power and fashion-plate, and to establish Davis as a "real fellow" and a solid citizen.

The author's visit to Lehigh was to uncover any new material possible on Davis' days as a student on the campus and also to compare that with the photographing of Lehigh's No. 1 alumnus in the literary world.

Prof. Allen J. Bartisford, founder of the Friends of Richard Hamilton Davis group on the campus, opened his files of Davis material to the biographer as well as the material in the Lehigh room of the library.

Nathan Hale, Jonathan Edwards and other distinguished Yale alumni are doing their bit, too, to save the current crop of old Elks, especially 1843 and Aviation Cadets, from deserts.

It seems the alumni mentioned are now represented on the campus by statues placed near quadrangles. These statues are called "statues" because the statues are hollow. Ergo, they have become the unofficial resting place for bits, chips, shoe shiners, brushes, and what have you. The cadet or trainee standing a formation in the squad rank reach in, pull out and shine as he runs.

Don't let it happen again. Wakefield fell with 400 American soldiers killed or captured by Japs.

Facts About The Egyptian

The paper is printed weekly. We call it "putting the paper to bed." The editor and three staff members are responsible for this. The three staff members change weekly so as to enable all the members to see the "behind the scenes" of the paper. Dr. Orville Alexander is sponsor of the Egyptian this year.

Dr. Van Lette is the financial director. Weekly the Egyptian is sent to the boys in the service who have attended Southern at all times. If you have the names of any such boys, please send their names and addresses to Patricia Hinkle who will take care of the olive copies. These boys receive free copies of the paper, therefore subscriptions will not be necessary.

The contentment of the EGYPTIAN sent Southern before the editor the service. The Egyptian is included in the activity fee, and there is no extra charge for the paper. If you enjoy it, that's all the payment the staff feels necessary. Putting out a college paper is not easy child's work as some might suggest. It's a steady drip, week after week. The reward, though, is seeing your work in print. For boys in the service, Dr. Van Lette is the financial director. ## NEWS FROM EVERYWHERE

LEXINGTON, KY. — (AP) — Teachers and prospective teachers within commuting distance of Lexington are now able to receive library training in odd hours under a new teacher-training program being inaugurated this year.

The newly designed set of professional library courses, with the first in the afternoon, evening and Saturdays for the convenience of teachers and others who cannot meet during the regular class hours.

A student who completes this program will be qualified to serve as teacher-librarian in high schools not having full-time librarians. Later, in the summer session, for example, the student could complete the full professional course of 45 hours and be qualified for full-time library work in school, college or public library.

URBANA-CAMPAIGN, ILL. — (AP) — A complete list of the fighting units in service has been published in the September issue of the University of Illinois Alumni News. There are exactly 11,410 men and women in the service.

The names and ranks of the 100 highest alumni who have lost their lives in service have also been published. Included in the roll of 100 are Helen Anderson, a nurse, and the other 99.

In the 19 months of fighting in World War I, about 150 alumni lives were lost compared to the 100 lost in the present war.

B. S. U. NEWS

The Prayer Band of the Baptist Student Union held its first meeting last Tuesday, September 28, at 4 p. m. in the Baptist Church. The band was composed of students present. Under the direction of Paul Shelton, devotional vice president of the Council, the organization met well.

It will meet the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month and membership is open to any student interested in becoming the essentials of prayer and soul-worship. This organization is the newest in the Baptist Student Union.

Dr. C. Gordon Hayles of Texas, who is now leading in a revival meeting at the Walnut Street Baptist Church, will be the guest speaker at noonday prayer meetings next week. All students are invited to hear Dr. Hayles at 12:35 each day next week in the Little Theatre.
